ABOUT THIS PLAN

The Western by Sierra Log & Timber is a welcoming 2,190 sq ft log home with a relaxed, open feel and a single-story layout that makes everyday living easy. Ideal for growing families or anyone who loves to keep life on one level, the Western centers around a spacious great room that flows naturally into a practical kitchen and dining area, perfect for gathering or quiet evenings in. Three comfortable bedrooms offer plenty of space for rest and privacy, while two and a half baths keep mornings running smoothly. With its straightforward design and warm, craftsman-built character, the Western fits beautifully as a year-round residence, a country retreat, or a place to settle in for retirement. Like all Sierra Log & Timber homes, it can be tailored to fit your vision, blending classic log style with the comforts of modern living.
