ABOUT THIS PLAN

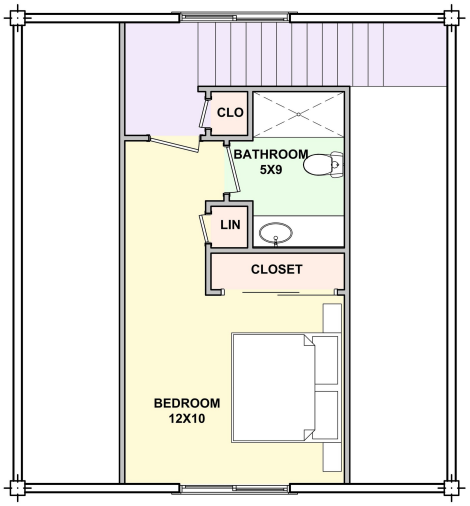

The Quad Cave by Sierra Log & Timber is a sturdy 936 sq ft log cabin with a practical spirit and a warm, inviting feel. Ideal for singles or couples looking for a cozy retreat or a full-time downsized home, it offers a comfortable main floor with 624 sq ft that includes a welcoming great room, a straightforward kitchen, and a private bedroom and bath. Upstairs, the 312 sq ft loft is ready for whatever you need most—an extra sleeping spot for guests, a quiet reading nook, or a tucked-away studio. The attached garage adds convenience for year-round living or weekend escapes. Whether as a mountain getaway, a lakeside cabin, or a guest house on your land, the Quad Cave is built for simple living and can be tailored to fit your vision. Read our story on the QUAD CAVE so you know its history.
